In 2010, we introduced the Canine Corner at the annual Scarecrow Fest in St. Charles!

It was such a big success, that we decided to make it part of the festival again.

Canine Corner is a pet friendly area on First Street that includes pet related businesses and not-for-profits groups. Entertainment, demonstrations and activities throughout the weekend attract visitors! One of the highlights will again be the Puppy Pageant - time/day TBA!

- Dates: Friday October 7th – Sunday October 9th, 2011
- Times: 9am – 9pm Friday and Saturday; 9am – 6pm Sunday
- Location: First Street in downtown St. Charles, on the large grassy area across from the parking garage.

Interested in participating? We are looking for the following!

We encourage you to offer an activity at your booth! Two examples from 2010 are a doggie kissing booth and a coloring contest.

- Pet Friendly For-Profit businesses (ex: boarding facility, groomer, trainer, pet store)
 - $200 for the weekend
 - Must provide your own tent, tables & chairs– max. tent size 10x10
- Not-For-Profit pet related organizations (example: animal shelter or pet rescue)
 - $100 for the weekend
 - Must provide your own tent, tables & chairs – max. tent size 10x10
- Pet related entertainment - If you would like to provide entertainment or a demonstration to the Canine Corner, please let us know!

St. Charles is a dog friendly community! Check out our pet travel specialist, Molly, with her friend Charlie in Pottawatomie Park!
